Dear Pearl:

Not knowing exactly how much information Leah has provided you, I am enclosing a copy of my last letter to her and the accompanying report concerning the program.

Thus far I have prepared all of the materials for distribution. Arrangements have been made to have the discussion taped, transcribed, edited and distributed.

The only remaining project is to finalize the panel itself. I had a new professor from Florida but he has changed his mind about being in attendance. I shall, however, find another this week and should hear from the other law librarians I have contacted.

I shall send a follow-up report as soon as the people are set.

Sincerely,

Richard H. Surles, Jr.
